"CRAZY" TO DRIVE UP CAPITOL STEPS

Fair Speeder Also Going to Petersburg to Extend Official Invitation.

Petersburg officials having accepted the invitation of the State Fair Association to participate in the festivities on October 11, that day has been set apart as "Petersburg Day."

Mayor Ainslie will have the keys of the city to present to the Mayor of Petersburg, who will, with his official associates and the officers of the Petersburg fair, be the guests of the Richmond association.

The party will be met at the train by a band and by a delegation of police and fair officials. They will be driven in automobiles to the Capitol where the Governor will hand them the glad hand on behalf of the State.

After that the city will be thrown open to them, and after taking a look at all the sights, the party will be wheeled out to the Fair Grounds, where luncheon will be served, and the day spent as best may seem fit.

On Monday afternoon, "Crazy" Curran, the fearless automobilist, will go to Petersburg in one of his racing machines, accompanied by his fellow dare-devils, to deliver the message of greeting extended to Mayor Ainslie. Curran will return with the reply from the Mayor of Petersburg.

"Crazy" will, at 10 o'clock this morning, attempt to drive his machine up the south steps of the Capitol building, having secured permission from the Governor and Colonel Richardson to attempt the feat.

All the school children are invited to assemble in Capitol Square this morning at that hour, to witness the effort, and to take a ride with Curran around the city.

The force at State Fair headquarters in booking the entries, announced yesterday that there were more, by a large percentage, entered in all the departments this year than ever before, and that steps would have to be taken at once to provide additional quarters for a large portion of the stock and the poultry.

The City School Board, having agreed with the Mayor upon Wednesday, October 9, as "Richmond Day," will observe that day as "Children's Day" also. The schools will be closed and the general holiday will be observed by the children as well as those who are engaged in business or who are employed in factories, mills, etc.

Paving Work on Good Roads.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., September 27.—Work is being pushed on the construction of the Bristol-Abingdon turnpike, which is to be part of the Bristol-Washington highway. More than 100 graders are moving along with the grading.

It is stated that Washington County expects to build through to the Smyth County line, and that Smyth and other counties have arranged for surveys, with a view to carrying the construction work as far east as Roanoke, a distance of more than 150 miles.

Negro Sent to Prison.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Warrenton, Va., September 27.—The case of Ernest Edwards, a colored convict who shot and killed, on April 12 last, Guard Forest Benton at the convict camp near New Baltimore, was closed here yesterday afternoon at a late hour and Edwards was sent to the criminal insane ward of the State Penitentiary for eighteen years for murder in the second degree. The case was heard before Judge Edward S. Turner. The court appointed attorneys Geo. Latham Fletcher and Wilkes Horgan to defend the negro. The prosecution was conducted by Commonwealth's Attorney J. A. C. Keith. The defense pleaded insanity. Dr. M. G. Douglas was chief witness for the defense.

Boyer—Bent.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Woodstock, Va., September 27.—Miss Mary Lacey Rust and George William Boyer were married on Thursday morning at 6 o'clock in the Reformed Church by the bride's pastor, Rev. Barley.

Mr. Boyer is a successful business man of this place. They will, after a Southern bridal trip, make their home in this place.

J. C. HOLLY ACQUITTED.

Freed of Murder Charge After Having Been Sentenced to Death.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wilmington, N. C., September 27.—After having once been convicted and sentenced to be electrocuted, J. C. Holly, a well known white man of this section, was acquitted by a jury in Pender County of murder.

It was charged that Holly poisoned a young man, Edward Crowell, and then set fire to his own hotel in this city to cremate the body and hide all evidence of his crime. He was tried and convicted, but a new trial was granted. The second trial ended in a mistrial, and the State, fearing it could not get a fair trial here, had the case removed to Pender County, where the defense secured a verdict of not guilty. Holly is still charged with arson, a capital crime in North Carolina, and was remanded to jail without bail, the court ordering him placed on trial here in December. Holly was at one time a Holiness preacher.

HOOPER THREE CAPTURED.

Three Auburn burglars to Judge Southall from State Lot.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Amelia, Va., September 27.—A daring home robbery was perpetrated yesterday. Geo. E. Taylor, Jr., was sent to the young Auburn house belonging to Judge Southall, and about dark turned the horse into the judge's stable lot and pasture. The stable boy thought Mr. Taylor had the horse, and his absence was not thought strange.

In the morning Ned Coleman, near Mannboro, was approached by a party with a proposition to trade horses. He recognized the horse and told the party so, and "phoned" his brother, who was assisting in Judge Southall's court, which is going on now. The judge telephoned back to catch the thief at any cost, and a party set out to catch him, and did so, five or six miles below Mannboro. He is a white man.

HISTORIC COLLEGES ARE SEPARATED BY COURT.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., September 27.—The suit to divorce Washington and Tusculum Colleges, historic Presbyterian schools of upper East Tennessee, which were established by Dr. Samuel Doak, a pioneer educator, was heard in the Supreme court at Knoxville this week, three hours having been allowed for argument. These two schools were wedded under a plan of union four years ago, but the plan was not satisfactory, and suit was instituted for separation. Chancellor Hal H. Haynes, who heard the case, held that there had in fact been no union, since the law providing for it had not been complied with. He divided the endowment of $100,000 so that Washington College would receive $55,000 and Tusculum College the remainder, The Carnegie fund of $21,000, for building purposes, he divided equally between the two schools.

The Tusculum College people appealed and are seeking to have the upper court reverse the lower court. The court's opinion in the case is expected during October.
